

4 March 30, 1904

Executive Chamber,

Annapolis, Md., March 30th, 1904.

A very large and influential delegation of leading citizens of Baltimore and the State appeared before the Board of Public Works at 3 o'clock p. m., this date. (The Board having convened for the purpose) to urge the re-appointment of Hon. Lloyd Wilkinson as State Insurance Commissioner. A list of the members of this delegation is to be furnished to the Board by Mr. James H. McClellan, who headed the delegation. Among the spokesmen were Mr. McClellan, Mr. F. Eugene Wathen and Col. W. Scott Roberts (representing the rural press) Mr. Gernand, President of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of Baltimore City, Pres. John R. Bland of the United States Fidelity and Guarantee Company, Mr. John T. Stone, President Maryland Casualty Company, State Senator Lewis of Allegany County, Mr. W. Hall Harris (representing the Metropolitan Life and the Prudential Life), President James Bond of the American Bonding Company, State Senator Robert B. Dixon of Talbot County, Genl. F. C. Latrobe, President Consolidated Gas Company and Congressman James W. Denny.

Oswald Tilghman, Secretary.

